FELTNOVA

Hygiene and Maintenance Planning

Inspect belt surfaces, edges and splices for wear or damage.

Check tracking and investigate contact with frames or guides.

Set scraper pressure to suit the belt and splice.

Follow the selected belt manufacturer cleaning instructions.

Confirm chemical compatibility before changing the cleaning routine.

Record inspections and agree replacement criteria with your maintenance team.