Feltnova

Washing and Drainage

Modular belt application checklist

1. Choose openings that support the smallest product on the line.

2. Allow space below the belt for water collection and debris removal.

3. Check spray coverage, belt support and access for cleaning.

4. Validate water removal and product stability under actual operating conditions.

General selection guidance. Confirm specifications for your application.